IntrinXec Management Hires Bryce A. Denton as Accounting Manager

March 12, 2008 (Minneapolis, Minnesota) - IntrinXec Management Inc., a Minneapolis-based association management company, has added Bryce A. Denton, MBA as accounting manager.

Bryce received his MBA from Dominican University in River Forest, IL, and most recently worked for Coleman, Espstein, Berlin and Company out of Chicago, where he was responsible for the majority of the audits, specifically audits of non-profits. Bryce also led the implementation of new Risk Assessment Standards, including software implementation for the firm.

"I believe Bryce will bring a strong skill set to our office that will help us improve processes and efficiencies in all accounting aspects," said IntrinXec President Jaime Nolan, CAE. "His background in auditing nonprofits will certainly be an asset that will help us ensure our records and processes are compliant with GAAP and IRS standards."

IntrinXec ensures the success of client events, membership growth and communications processes by providing organized and detailed management, efficient processes, strategic leadership and exceptional customer service. Dedicated to enhancing the professional image of its clients, IntrinXec is accredited by the AMC Institute. For more information about IntrinXec, visit www.intrinxec.com/
