IntrinXec Management Achieves AMC Institute Re-Accreditation

January 12, 2009 (Minneapolis, Minnesota) - IntrinXec Management Inc., a Minneapolis-based association management company, announced that it has recently been awarded re-accreditation by the AMC Institute, the global trade association representing the association management industry.

IntrinXec is among a handful of association management companies (AMCs) to be accredited. Currently, there are more than 500 AMCs worldwide, but fewer than 50 have achieved AMC Institute Accreditation, demonstrating their commitment and the ability to deliver the highest level of professional management services to association and not-for-profit clients. IntrinXec became accredited for the first time in 2004.

"We congratulate IntrinXec for achieving AMC Institute Accreditation once again," stated AMC Institute Board President, John Francis. "The accreditation evaluation is the most demanding and comprehensive in our industry. Clients of accredited AMCs should feel assured that this exclusive group operates with the highest level of professionalism and responsibility, and consistently meets or exceeds all industry requirements."

IntrinXec ensures the success of client events, membership growth and communications processes by providing organized and detailed management, efficient processes, strategic leadership and exceptional customer service. Dedicated to enhancing the professional image of its clients, IntrinXec is accredited by the AMC Institute. For more information about IntrinXec, visit www.intrinxec.com/
